** ADDENDUM #1 ****

TOWN OF GREENWICH, CT

REQUEST FOR BID #7443    DEADLINE: 11/14/18 AT 3:00 PM

STATION UNIFORMS FOR THE GREENWICH FIRE DEPARTMENT

Question 1: Number 6 of the cover page for Request For Bid #7443 states, alternate bids will be considered. However, page 1 of the actual RFB, states no substitutes for manufacturers. Can you clarify?

Answer 1: The Cover Sheet for RFB #7443, number 6. states: "The Town will consider an alternate bid only if bidders have been permitted to provide an alternate bid. An alternate bid must be clearly identified as such in order to be considered by the Town."

This RFB does not permit alternate bids or substitutions for specified styles or manufacturers as stated on page 1.

Question 2: The department has been wearing Flying Cross golf shirts the past few years, style # 7600 cotton polo. Is this still an acceptable substitution to the Lion model shirt uniform item #3, Golf Shirts, listed in the RFB?

Answer 2: No, this RFB does not permit alternate bids or substitutions for specified styles or manufacturers.

Question 3: Please clarify the manufacturer of uniform items 6 and 6A specified on page 3 of RFB #7443. The two shirt style numbers listed are by Flying Cross, and what the department officers have been wearing. I believe the reference to LION is a typo but can you confirm?

Answer 3: Yes, the manufacturer was incorrectly listed as LION. The correct uniform items for 6 and 6A are manufactured by Flying Cross. Please note correction below:

Officer Uniform Shirt White

- 6. Flying Cross 85R5400 short sleeve
- 6A. Flying Cross 35W5400 long sleeve

Question 4: On Page 4 of the RFB Item #11, Winter Coats states a Blauer model number but the department has been wearing Spiewak model S3616 with the 5327 liner. Is this still an acceptable alternative?

Answer 4: No, this RFB does not permit alternate bids or substitutions for specified styles or manufacturers.

ALL OTHER SPECIFICATIONS, TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS RFB REMAIN UNCHANGED.
